19th Annual RIVERSIDE DICKENS FESTIVAL London Market Place *Produced by The Crossroads Group January 7 & 8, 2012 10am to 5pm NO Application Fee – Booth Payment Due with Application

August 20, 2010

To insure your participation return the application and payment NOW or as soon as possible before November 15, 2011.

The Riverside Dickens Festival has moved to the Riverside Convention Center. Most of the Festival will be indoors. No need to worry about the weather. Setup will begin on Friday depending upon the availability of the Convention Center. You will be notified as soon as the Convention Center notifies us.

Some vendor spaces are available outside. All booths are on hard surface and there can be no staking. We are still responsible for creating our own environment so bring a booth and decorations.

Attendance at the festival remains strong. Each year it attracts thousands of new and returning visitors. Many of the guests come in costume. The audiences last year at the Convention was excellent and be expect the same for this year. The Riverside Dickens Festival is funded in part by the City of Riverside and the Riverside Arts Foundation.

Come and join the celebration of the life and times of Charles Dickens. Born February 7, 1812 and raised in Victorian England he started his career as a writer of fiction short stories and essays in 1833. He is most famous for his works that include the "Pickwick Papers", "Oliver Twist", "David Copperfield", "Tale of Two Cities", and his memorable work "A Christmas Carol". The featured book for 2011 will be "A Christmas Carol". Exciting activities and events for all ages are planned. Plays, street performers, food, educational workshops, musical performances and exhibits are just a few of the events planned.

Admission to the London Marketplace is free and features crafters, shops and entertainment of the time. The Riverside Dickens Festival is host to many other paid events as part of the Festival. They include Pub Night, hosted by Mr. Pickwick and a Grand Ball. Contact the Riverside Dickens Festival for information and tickets on all of their wonderful performances at www.dickensfest.com or 800-430-4140.

Remember this is a themed event. You must have an appropriate product, costume and booth decorations that reflect the Dickens era approximately 1812 through 1877 England. New entertainment and new players keep the Festival fresh and exciting.
